What to Expect from a Professional Investigation

Introduction

A professional paranormal investigation can be both an exciting and nerve-wracking experience. At Unseen Frequencies, we aim to demystify the process, offering clarity and support to those experiencing unexplained activity. This guide walks you through every stage of a professional investigation, ensuring you feel informed and prepared.

The Investigation Process

Initial Consultation: Before visiting your property, we conduct a detailed consultation. This includes understanding the nature of the activity, gathering historical and contextual information, and identifying possible triggers or patterns.

On-Site Investigation: Once on-site, our team follows a systematic approach, including conducting interviews with witnesses, setting up equipment, and observing and documenting the environment.

Overnight Investigations: If heightened activity tends to occur at night, our team may arrange an overnight stay to monitor and record the phenomena during peak times.

Tools of the Trade

Our investigations rely on advanced equipment, including:

- EMF Meters: To detect electromagnetic field fluctuations.
- Digital Recorders: For capturing EVPs (Electronic Voice Phenomena).
- Thermal Cameras: To identify temperature anomalies.

What to Expect from a Professional Investigation

- SLS Cameras: To detect human-like shapes not visible to the naked eye.
- Full-Spectrum Cameras: For capturing light spectrums beyond normal visibility.
- Motion Sensors: To detect unseen movements.
- Infrared Cameras: For capturing images in low-light conditions.

Data Collection: We log occurrences in detail, take photographic and video evidence, and capture audio recordings for further analysis.

Analyzing the Evidence

After the investigation, we meticulously analyze all collected data, filtering out natural causes or interference. The findings are reviewed, and you will receive a detailed report explaining our conclusions and any recommendations.

After the Investigation

Follow-Up: We don't stop after the initial investigation. Our team will follow up to ensure the situation is improving and offer additional support if needed. Based on the findings and your preferences, we can involve clergy, counselors, or other professionals.
